

THE MONDAY REPORT

LUCY KUBISZYN, EDITOR

August 1, 1988

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
Date: 9-29-95

GROUND BREAKING HELD

THE Shelton State Foundation broke ground this past week for the new industrial training center to be built at the Technical Division of the college. The facility, which is scheduled for completion in the spring of 1989, will be used by business and industry of this area for the training and retraining of their work force.

In a unique and creative arrangement between the community and the college, the Shelton Foundation, a private nonprofit organization composed of college and community leaders, will lease the land from the college during the construction period and be responsible for building the center.

The engineering firm of Hankins Harrison and Cabiniss Inc will oversee the project. Estimated cost for the center is $500,000.00. McAbee Construction Company will be the contractor.

SENIOR STUDIES RECEIVES AWARD

SHELTON'S SENIOR ADULT STUDIES PROGRAM WAS NOMINATED FOR THE 1988 PRESIDENT'S VOLUNTEER ACTION AWARD. LOUIE SKIPPER, DIRECTOR OF THE COLLEGE'S PROGRAM, RECENTLY RECEIVED NOTIFICATION OF THE HONOR FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES RONALD REAGAN.

SHELTON FACULTY MEMBER RECEIVES HONOR

DENNIS SAMPSON'S SECOND VOLUME OF POETRY, FORGIVENESS, has recently been accepted for publication by story line press. His first book, THE DOUBLE GENESIS, appeared in 1985 and was nominated by the National Endowment of the Arts for display at the Frankfurt Bookfair in Frankfurt, Germany. Sampson also has new work appearing in The Ohio Review and Ploughshares and a review of eight contemporary poets is due out this summer in The Hudson Review. A recipient of an individual fellowship in creative writing from the Alabama Arts Council and an Academy of American Poet's Prize, Sampson is presently the project coordinator of Educational Talent Search at Shelton State.

NEW OPTIONS FOR YOUR LIFE

BEGINNING ITS fourth year, the New Options program at Shelton State offers adults, especially women, guidance in setting occupational goals, practical assistance in finding employment, skills training and academic preparation, individual counseling with a licensed psychologist, and friendly, informative group sessions. Over 250 women have been assisted by the free program since its conception.

An orientation and open house will be held September 14 from 2-4 p.m. at the college. Regular weekly sessions begin the third week of September with a choice of evening meetings on Tuesdays and 7:30 p.m. or morning sessions on Friday at 9:30 a.m. Regular lunch sessions followed by group discussions will be held Wednesdays at noon throughout the Fall quarter. New Options is directed by Dr. Paula Sue Hayes. Dr. Betty Gibbons, certified psychologist, is counselor for the program. For more information, contact the college, ext. 82.

EARLY REGISTRATION FOR FALL QUARTER IS AUGUST 11-12.
REGISTRATION IS SEPTEMBER 1 AND CLASSES WILL BEGIN ON TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6.

FIRE COLLEGE HOLDS SPECIAL EVENT

PLANNED EVENTS DURING the quarterly meeting of the Firefighters Minimum Standards Commission were held recently at the Alabama State Fire College. The activities were planned as part of the merger of the Fire College and the Commission. Bill Langston is director of the Minimum Standards Commission and has joined the staff at Shelton State.

Visitors to the college were treated to a reception and dinner at the Yacht Club, breakfast and Commission meeting, and a tour of the college's campuses including the new Alabama Water Resources Training Center.

MALLORY TO SPEAK AT CHILD CARE WORKSHOP

SHELTON INSTRUCTOR ALLAN MALLORY WILL BE THE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS FOR A WORKSHOP ON CHILD CARE IN TUSCALOOSA. Entitled "Who's Minding the Children" the workshop will examine the availability and quality of child care in Tuscaloosa. Sponsored by the Women's Commission of for the City of Tuscaloosa, the workshop will be held Saturday, August 13, from 9 a.m. - 12 noon in the C.A. Fredd Cafetorium, 3401 32nd street. To register for the free workshop, contact Lucy Kubiszyn at Shelton, 759-1541.